NOTABLE GIFTS AND GRANTS

The Albert Einstein Cancer Center (AECC) gratefully acknowledges the generosity of the following donors, whose support is critical to advancing its mission.

The Helen and Irving Spatz Foundation has made a commitment of $1 million to support clinical trials in cancer. This investment will help Einstein investigators advance their efforts to find new and improved cancer treatments.

Funds totaling $215,659 were received from the Estate of Ruth Brandes for cancer research.

The Breast Cancer Research Foundation has renewed grants totaling $675,000 to support research studies by Rachel Hazan, Ph.D.; Susan Band Horwitz, Ph.D., the Rose C. Falkenstein Chair in Cancer Research, and Hayley M. McDaid, Ph.D.; and Thomas E. Rohan, M.D., Ph.D., the Atran Foundation Chair in Social Medicine.

The Avon Foundation for Women has awarded a grant of $125,000 to B.BOLD Buddies, a component of the Bronx Breast Oncology Living Daily (B.BOLD) program that offers one-on-one peer support for patients with breast cancer. B.BOLD is directed by Alyson B. Moadel, Ph.D., head of the Psychosocial Oncology Program at the AECC.
